

Support Policy

Last Updated: 11 July 2026

At WebOre, we are committed to providing reliable support to our clients. This Support Policy explains the scope of our support services, response times, limitations, and the responsibilities of both WebOre and our clients.

By using our services, you agree to this Support Policy.

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Support Policy is to define the support services provided by WebOre after project delivery and to establish clear expectations regarding response times, support availability, and additional service requests.

2. Support Services

WebOre may provide support for:

- Website bug fixes
- Technical troubleshooting
- Website performance issues
- Minor design corrections
- Contact form issues
- Mobile responsiveness issues
- Browser compatibility issues
- General website guidance
- Assistance related to delivered project files

Support is limited to the services originally provided by WebOre.

3. Free Support Period

Unless otherwise stated in the project agreement, WebOre provides 30 days of complimentary support from the date of final project delivery.

During this period, WebOre will address issues directly related to the delivered project at no additional cost.

4. Paid Support

Support requested after the complimentary support period may be provided as a paid service.

Examples include:

- Website updates
- New features
- Design changes
- Additional pages
- Performance improvements
- Third-party integrations
- Ongoing maintenance

Charges will be communicated and approved before work begins.

5. Response Time

WebOre aims to respond to support requests within:

- General Support: Within 1–2 business days
- Urgent Technical Issues: Within 24 hours, where reasonably possible

Response times may vary during weekends, public holidays, or periods of high demand.

6. Support Hours

Support is generally available during our normal business hours.

Support outside business hours, weekends, or public holidays may be available at our discretion and may be subject to additional charges.

7. What is Covered

Our support includes:

- Fixing coding errors introduced by WebOre
 - Resolving technical issues within the original project scope
 - Correcting layout or display issues
 - Basic guidance regarding the delivered website

8. What is NOT Covered

The following are generally not included under free support:

- Requests for new features
- Website redesigns
- Content writing
- Graphic design
- Logo creation
- Search Engine Optimization (SEO)
- Social media management
- Digital marketing
- Domain registration
- Web hosting services
- Email setup
- Third-party software issues
- Changes requested outside the original project scope
- Problems caused by modifications made by the client or another developer after delivery

Such requests may require a separate quotation.

9. Client Responsibilities

To receive effective support, clients agree to:

- Clearly describe the issue.
- Provide screenshots or error messages where applicable.
- Provide access credentials when necessary.

- Respond to support requests in a timely manner.

Failure to provide required information may delay support.

10. Third-Party Services

WebOre is not responsible for issues caused by third-party services including:

- Hosting providers
- Domain registrars
- Payment gateways
- External APIs
- Plugins
- Software updates made by third parties

We will make reasonable efforts to assist where possible, but resolution may depend on the third-party provider.

11. Limitation of Support

Support does not include continuous monitoring of your website unless a separate maintenance agreement has been signed.

WebOre reserves the right to decline support requests that fall outside the agreed project scope or violate applicable laws.

12. Changes to This Policy

WebOre reserves the right to update or modify this Support Policy at any time.

Any changes become effective immediately upon publication on our website.
