

Cookie Policy

Last Updated: 11 July 2026

At WebOre, we use cookies and similar technologies to improve your browsing experience, analyze website traffic, remember your preferences, and provide better web services. This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, and your choices regarding their use.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer, smartphone, or other device when you visit a website. They help websites recognize your device, remember your preferences, and improve your overall browsing experience.

2. Types of Cookies We Use

Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the operation of our website. Without them, certain features such as contact forms, navigation, and security functions may not work properly.

Performance & Analytics Cookies

These cookies help us understand how visitors interact with our website by collecting anonymous information such as:

- Number of visitors
- Pages visited
- Time spent on pages
- Website performance

This information helps us improve our website and services.

Preference Cookies

These cookies remember your settings and preferences, including:

- Language preferences
- Theme settings
- User preferences

Security Cookies

Security cookies help us:

- Prevent unauthorized access
- Detect suspicious activities
- Protect user information
- Improve website security

3. How We Use Cookies

WebOre uses cookies to:

- Improve website functionality
- Enhance user experience
- Analyze website traffic
- Remember user preferences
- Improve website performance
- Detect security threats
- Maintain website reliability

4. Third-Party Cookies

Some services integrated into our website may place their own cookies, including but not limited to:

- Google Analytics
- Google Fonts
- Google Maps
- YouTube Embeds
- Payment Gateways

- Social Media Integrations

These third-party services have their own privacy and cookie policies. WebOre does not control how these third parties use cookies.

5. Managing Cookies

You may control or disable cookies at any time through your web browser settings.

Most modern browsers allow you to:

- View stored cookies
- Delete cookies
- Block cookies
- Block cookies from specific websites
- Receive notifications before cookies are stored

Please note that disabling cookies may affect certain features and functionality of our website.

6. Cookie Retention

Cookies may remain on your device for different periods depending on their purpose.

Some cookies are deleted when you close your browser (Session Cookies), while others remain until they expire or are manually deleted (Persistent Cookies).

7. Changes to This Cookie Policy

WebOre reserves the right to update or modify this Cookie Policy at any time.

Any changes will become effective immediately after they are published on this page. We encourage users to review this policy periodically.

8. Contact Us

If you have any questions regarding this Cookie Policy, please contact us.
